Questions about Grad Transitions? Find out more

At the next PAC meeting, Kits Principal Ellen Roberts will discuss grad transitions with parents. It's a valuable opportunity for parents to understand the mandatory program for grads, whether your child is graduating this year or in future years.

Bring your questions.

Join the PAC executive for 2014/15

If you'd like to make a contribution to your child's school, we welcome all those interested in stepping up to take on an executive position.

Elections take place at the PAC meeting. Anyone who is interested can contact Shelley Nicholl, PAC Chair, at kitspac@hotmail.com in advance or come to the May 22 meeting.

TEACHER APPRECIATION LUNCHEON MAY 15

Volunteers Needed!

The teacher appreciation luncheon is coming up on Thursday, May 15 and we need volunteers to make it happen!

If you'd like to help, please contact Martina Mitterer at mmitterer99@hotmail.com

VANCOUVER SCHOOL DISTRICT BUDGET CUTS

The Premier responds

In response to the budget cuts by the Vancouver School Board, the PAC agreed at the April PAC meeting to send letters voicing its concerns to Premier Christy Clark and the Vancouver School Board.

In the last PAC e-newsletter we provided responses from MLA David Eby and the school trustees.

Premier Christy Clark responded May 9 and her letter is here: Premier's response.

SUPPORT FOR THE FAGNAN FAMILY

In memory of Ryan Fagnan

Ryan Mathieu Fagnan, who attended Bayview Elementary and had many friends at Kitsilano Secondary, passed away April 24 at the age of 14 from leukemia.

The family requests donations to BC Children's Hospital Foundation or Pioneer Pacific Camp in lieu of flowers. An on-line memorial has been created to receive shared Memories of Ryan.

Links to the Children's Hospital Foundation and Pioneer Pacific Camp can be found on the website. All are encouraged visit the site to share stories and memories of Ryan.

As well, a fundraiser for the family has also been organized. Please see: fundrzzr
